members of the club were opposed to letting Mr. Carroll challenge for it or let the club have anything to do withit at all. It was said that it would detract from the importance of the America's Cup if he raced for the Royal Victoria Cup, this year. It was also alleged that the con litions were unfair and unsportsmanlike. Another slip story was that the Navahoe was a new boat and that she might not be as last as some of the cup defenders now building, and that therefore she was not a representative yache.

As no one in the New York Yacht Club seemed to know anything about it, Mr. Carroll was appealed to, and linally consented to be Interviewed. A Nun representative called at his house, 14 East Thirty-fifth street, yesterday. Mr. Carroll said that, while some of the correspondence for the Royal Victoria Cup was of a private nature, he could tell all there was to tell in a very few words. He then handed the reporter a copy of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club's deed, which will be found below:

There was a representative gathering o club men at the Enequet and Tennis Club's beautiful home in West Forty-third street yesterday afternoon when Albert Bridger, the Club, crossed sticks with George Standing, the New York club's great player, for the first time. A large delegation from Montreal's swell club came on to see Bridger play, and did their best to cheer their favorite on to vic-tory. New York clubdom was also well represented, so the affair took on an international character.

Long before the hour set for the match the spacious galleries at the end of the court were crowded to suffocation. Andrew A. Allen. President of the Montreal Racquet Club. headed the Montreal contingent. He was accompanied by Frank F. Rolland, Arthur E Abbott, Frederick E. Meredith. William R. Miller, Alfred E. E. Trevithick, William Hope. Miller, Alfred E. E. Trevithick, William Hope, W. F. Torrence, and H. S. Holt, Among the well-known New Yorkers present were:

E. La Montagne, V. Martinez, C. L. Perkins, B. Sraulding de Garmendia, E. C. Sanda, Isaac Townsend, H. H. Crocker, A. G. Hodges, Charles Wats-in, Morton Paton, V. A. Biaque, H. de Coppet, George Work, R. A. Feabodg, E. M. Foiton, A. W. Morris, H. R. Richardson, E. M. Fullon, Jr., J. H. Smith, René La Montagne, Paul Dana, J. B. Lord, James Burden, and R. P. Play was called promptly at 3:30 o'clock with E. La Montagne, Jr., occupying the referee's chair. Every one anticipated a great contest, and in this they were not discappointed, as the playing in the first game was as fine as any ever seen in this country. Bridger astonished every one by taking the load early in the game, and finally, after some very pretty rallies, managed to capture it by a score of 10 to 13. His efforts in the first game apparently exhausted him, as afterward he could make but little headway against Standing's lightning, like drives and beautiful places, which caused him to lose the next three games straight by secres of 15 to 0, 15 to 11, and 15 to 7 respectively, and the match by three games to one

Bridger, who is an Englishman by birth, was formerly marker in the Brighton Racquet Club, England. He has lived in Montreal for the past ten years, and is now employed as a professional by the Montreal Racquet Club, Taking into consideration the fact that he was playing on a strange court, with only one day's practice, he made a remarkably good showing. He has a fair service, but seldom gets there with his first ball. He is a very hard hitter, and has a long, swinging stroke that reminds one of Boakes, the celebrated Canadian professional.

Standing, who represented the New York Club, is a likely looking young Englishman. Standing has improved, and to-day has one of the prettiest services ever seen on a court. He has a dendly back-hand return, and his placing and droy strokes are nearly perfect. Yesterday's match was for a purso subscribed by the members. To-morrow the second and final match will be played on the same court. The members. To-morrow the second and final match will be played on the same court. The

THE FIZZLE AT IFY CITY.

Horsemen Looking for Their Money-Eun ning for the Bookmakers.

WASHINGTON, March 10.-There was racing at the Ivy City track yesterday and to-day, but not under the management of the Ivy City Jockey Club. Horse owners really had charge of affairs and ran for the money collected from bookmakers, which amounted to about $850. This gave winners of the different races from $103 for Hiawasse to $190 for Vold. This state of affairs will, so it is claimed, continue for the rest of the week, and then the meeting will be

In the mean time a number of owners are hustling around trying to collect the purses their horses have won. W. Carroll has $600 due him. W. J. Rogers a little over $700. V. Hollar over $300, and so on down the line. These men met the officers of the association after the racing yesterday, but received very little satisfaction. Mr. Rogers. on behalf of the horsemen, tried to find out who was backing the club.
"Who are we to look to for our purses?" he

"Who are we to look to for our purses?" he asked J. A. Qualey.
"I want you horsemen to stick to me."
"Yes, but sticking to you wont get our money. Tell us who is responsible for the purses that we have already wen."
"Now, I want you horsemen to stick to me." repeated Qualey. "because I have been made a tool of. There was money in bank to pay all nurses, but the Treasurer drew it out and sent it to New York."
This statement created quite a little sensation, and the Treasurer was called upon for an explanation. He said that there had been about $850 in bank, and that he had withdrawn it and sent it to Mr. Meyers in New York.
Then all hands commenced to talk at once.
The President told a long rambling story about how he had been made a tool of, the horsemen kicked for their money, and not a soul present got the slightest bit of satisfaction. Afterward the horsemen concluded to race until next Saturday, dividing up the money received from the books. This will give them all a chance to get money for moving expenses, and, as admission to the grounds will be free, a large crowd will, no doubt, be present every day.

MR. PATE'S RACING ENTERPRISE. Inaugurate Horse Racing.

Sr. Louis, March 10.-Robert C. Pate, the well-known breeder and turfite, has returned to this city after a four months' sojourn in Mexico. The object of his visit was to make arrange ments to introduce horse racing to the people of that country. He was encouraged by per-sons high in official position, who smoothed sary concession. There is a growing sentiment in favor of doing away with bull fighting, and Mr. Pate's horse racing scheme was looked upon as just ing away with buil fighting, and Mr. Pate's horse racing scheme was looked upon as just the thing to work the abolition of that popular but barbarous pastime.

Congress awarded to Mr. Pate the exclusive right to build and operate race tracks within the country, and to facilitate him in every way, has taken the tariff off the importation of thoroughbred animals for breeding purposes, and will admit race horses froe underbond. Señor Rubeo, President Diar's fatherin-law, has interested himself with Mr. Pate, and will help him erect his first race course. It will be a second Saratoga affair.

Job Pate's turf career began years ago when he started with a string of trotting horses. After one or two seasons he made a venture in thoroughbreds, purchasing Milton Young's string, the star of which was Monogram. The horse was entered in the first Suburban, and Pate backed him to a standatill in the winter books. Bob stood to win $40,000. He was in St. Louis when the race was run, and when the yellow envelope war handed to him which would tell whether he had won or lost a small fortune he tore it open leisurely and read. "Monogram has won." A minute later another telegram came, this time saying, "A mistake. Monogram has run unplaced."

There was no more emotion this time than the first.

Mr. Pate says he will have some trotting interests in Mexico, but the buik of his interests will be in the running turf.

A Horse Beuts a Bicycler. Down in St. Augustine the people are amusing themselves with tests of speed and endurance between horses and a bicycle rider. John S. Prince, the well-known professional rider, was the cycler, and two running horses named Leo and Polly were pitted against him in a twenty-mile race that took place at Ponce de Leon Park last Monday afternoon. Snapper Garrison was the starter. There was a large crowd present, and odds on the horses went begging. Prince rode on a board track, and the horses ran on the earth track outside, being conceded two laps on that account. Therefore the race consisted of eighty laps for Prince and eaventy-eight for the horses.

The first four miles were finished by both horses and wheelman in 10 minutes and 16 seconds, and the succeding four miles were done in 18 minutes and 16 seconds. The horse has showed come passing, but folly account. The rose Leo showed come passing, but folly account in the second of the contract of th Down in St. Augustine the people are amusing them-

PLAY OR PAY, AT 50 TO 1

SENSATION'S SON BEATS BLITZEN IN THE RACE FOR THE $500 PURSE.

The Talent Reap a Harrost by Playing Lord of the Harem, Fleurette, Mary S., and King Crab, All Winning Selections. The rush to Guttenburg continues. Yesterday there was a new deal for bookmakers, and thirty-seven were kept busy instead of the eighteen which were more than enough to do business before the city pool rooms were closed. Manager J. C. Carr inspected the betting ring early in the afternoon and saw that all lads under age were sent out of the ring. Since the wild raids on the bookmakers two years ago the well-organized police force at the track have kept the place quiet and orderly.

The talent struck it rich in the majority of the races. There was only one upset, but that was a lofty tumble. Blitzen, the iron horse among the winter cracks, was beaten by the 50 to 1 shot Play or Pay in the fourth race, in a drive, Hoer, a point favorite over Blitzen. Enishing third.

Lord of the Harem, top selection in the first race, galloped in a handy winner, Craft, secrace, galloped in a handy winner, Craft, second choice, taking the place from Skees Gelster. Fleurette, the choice in the second race,

ALL READY TO PLAY BALL, But What Has Become of the Amateur League's Championship of 1892?

The Amsteur Baseball League magnates have comavery club was scheduled to play eighteen games, three at home and a like number abroad. This year the clubs will only play twelve games, meeting each other four times. It is thought that the schedule was shortened to cut down expenses. The season will open on May 27, when the Staten Island A. C. and Staten Island four times. It is thought that the schedule was shortened to cut down expenses. The season will open on May 27, when the Staten Island A. C. and Englewood Field Club at Englewood. There will be games every Saturday thereafter until Jun. 12.

White all arrangements have been made for this year, the championship of 1802 has not been settled. When the Naw Jersey A. C. entered a protest against presenting the championship to the Staten Island A. C. it was agreed that a committee of two, one man to be selected from each of the above clubs, should decide the question; in case of failure, a third person was to have been selected by the committee who should have tull power to award the championship. After failing to untained the matter themselves, the committee of two could not agree upon a third person, and from present indications no decision will ever he reached. The managers of the different clubs in the League are securing their players, and the prospects are that the teams will be more evenly matched than last season, if the rumors are true the Staten Island A. CAMBRIDGE, March 16.-The Harvard baseball schedule is nearly completed, but needs the sanction of the Athletic Association before it will be given out for publication. There is at present a hitch in getting the approval of the schedule over the date of the first Yale game. This is now arranged for June 22, the game. This is now arranged for June 22, the day before class day, and has been objected to by a member of the Athletic Committee, who wish the game to be played after class day. The captain and manager of the nine, as well as the great body of students, are opposed to any such arrangement. It is very likely that the schedule will stand approved in spite of the objection raised to it.

Manager Hill has completed one of the best series of games arranged for many years. There will be over thirty games in all, to be played every Monday and Tuesday in Cambridge, and out of town on Saturdays. The principal ones with Yale and Princeton will be:

SIEVERS DEFEATS LA DUE AND FUCHS. High Scores Rolled by Clever Bowlers In

The Sun Tournament.
When clever bowlers are opposed against each other, as they were in last night's series of Tax Sox individual champicaship tournament, high scores are expected, and in consequence there was another large crowd at the Germania Assembly Rooms alleys to witness the games between those excellent knights of the wooden spheres, Sievers, La Due, and Fuchs, The enthusiasts were not disappointed, for they saw games replete with well-carned strikes and difficult spares. One with well-carried strikes and difficult apares. Our Slever's spare bowling in the first series was a feature. In the four games he made twenty-eight source, an average of seven for each game, and it was mainly due to his effective work that he dereased Fuchs. Five games were necessary to decide the second series, and, after Yuchs had rolled 253 in the fourth game, it was exnected that the dismains bowler would win the deciding contest, but La flux caught, under suppring and ries between La Due and Sievers was always in doubt, the games being won by a few pins by Sievers.
